

Curriculum Vitae

Personal data

Name and surname: Beñat Eguiluz Miranda

Studies

Primary, secondary, A levels

Graduated in History

Graduated in a Master (Europa y el mundo Atlántico/ Europe and the Atlantic world)

Basque language title C1 level

English language title B1 level

Experience

Four years of Archaeology fieldwork with professor Joxean Mujica Alustiza in the Basque country in Prehistoric and Ancient sites, participating with the University of the Basque Country (UPV-EHU)

Introduction to some laboratory work done in wooden Timbers and Dendrochronology

Attendance to different conferences, amongst this:

Early Medieval history conference (2009)

Participated in the 10th conference of ADEH in Spain, Albacete (2013)

I Conference for Underwater and Nautical archaeology in Spain, Cartagena (2013)

Participation on “Euskal herria mugaz gaindi” conference, in Deusto, Bilbao Basque Country, 2013. The article written was: “Ternuara joandakoen oroimena: Aro Berriko euskaldun marinelen irudia, iraganaren eta gaurkotasunaren artean”

Member of the new Underwater Archaeological society in Spain, named SIAS (Sociedad de Investigadores de Arqueología Subacuática) (Bottom line of people, first from the right, that is me)

Fieldwork in the Project Cabrera 2013 in Underwater Archaeology

Member of the Albaola society of Basque Maritime Heritage (Basque Country) and representative of this on the Newport Ship Project

Participation on the Newport ship Project in Wales, for six months with a scholarship from the Basque Country

Active supporter of the maritime heritage and passionate about it

Written dissertation for the Masters:

Beyond lands and oceans borders. Basque seafarer's journey across the Atlantic Ocean, 15th-18th centuries/ Lurren eta Ozeanoen mugez gaindi. Euskaldun arrantzaleen ibilbidea Ozeano Atlantikoaz haraindi, XV.-XVIII. mendeetan (2013)

Diving

Fieldwork introduction into the underwater archaeology (10 dives), prospecting, identifying Anforae and Photography

41 dives,

NAUI Open water Certified

Nitrox

Advanced Open Water Certified